DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim 8 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kikkawa (U.S. 6,476,894).

Kikkawa discloses a liquid crystal display device having an orientation control portions formed of an organic film. Note in figure 1A, the upper substrate 8, lower substrate 4, and the orientation control portion 6 formed on the lower substrate. The orientation control portion 6 is formed of an organic film such as acrylic resin or polyimide. See column 6, lines 3-16. As shown in figure 1A, the orientation control portion 6 forms a difference in gaps between the upper and lower substrate.
